

"The benefit of training key people in a common language of success, with a focus on individual and organizational excellence, that promotes collective breakthrough from good to great, should not be underestimated. The ELD program gives the blueprint and tools to make that happen."

Barry McDonough

Manager of Geological Operations at Newcrest Brucejack Operations

